Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Joe Jund has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Joe has been an advocate servant to the people of South Dakota since joining the South Dakota Department of Transportation, primarily serving in the capacity of Traffic Data Technician; and,

Whereas, Joe has endured tremendous hours installing and maintaining traffic monitoring equipment requiring long hours and personal sacrifice to create safe travel opportunities for those he served; and,

Whereas, On April 5, 2013, after more than 47 years of service to the South Dakota Department of Transportation, Joe is retiring; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby designate April 5, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join with his colleagues and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
